Dear Friends,

This weekend we welcome the Presidents of the Church of Christ the Cornerstone, and offer a particular welcome to those who are able to join us for Mass on Saturday evening. Working and praying together as Christian churches is an important part of the life of all parishes, but gathering with the leaders of each of our Christian Traditions this weekend, underlines how important the search for Christian unity is for the church as a whole.

With God's Blessing,

Fr Francis

Parking at St Augustine's

There have been a few incidents of inconsiderate and unsafe parking again over the past few weeks, particularly by parking too close to the bend. The vast majority of drivers park well and the number of complaints that we receive have reduced but please continue to park considerately.

Annual Diocesan Pilgrimage to Walsingham Saturday 9th June

If you would like to join the Diocesan Pilgrimage to Walsingham this year, then please sign one of the sheets at the back of Church today. Please ensure that you have filled in a contact number.
